

Master Brewers Association of the Americas – District St. Louis

District Past President, Duties and responsibilities

The District Past President is an Officer of the District and member of the Executive Board, having fulfilled a term as the duly elected President of the District.

The Past President has no formal duties other than what may be requested by the Executive Board in the form of a special assignment or to Chair a task force. Due to experience gained from the office, the Past President is a valuable contributor to the issues faced by the Executive Board.